

NATIONAL JAIL LEADERSHIP COMMAND ACADEMY APPLICATION

Overview

The tenth class of the National Jail Leadership Command Academy will be held June 10-15, 2012, at the George J. Beto Criminal Justice Center on the campus of Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. The goals and qualifications are as follows:

Mission: The National Jail Leadership Command Academy (NJLCA) is designed to provide training for succession preparation, and to develop leadership skills for successful transitioning into senior leadership positions within jails.

Definition: For the purposes of the NJLCA, a mid-level manager is defined as a person (sworn or civilian) who supervises the work and performance of employees in a jail facility and is in line to succeed those persons that currently direct, administer, and/or are in charge of the operations of the jail facility, division, bureau, department, program, and/or shift.

Tuition: Academy tuition includes all class materials, lodging for five (5) nights, all meals/snacks, and transportation to/from George Bush Intercontinental Airport in Houston, Texas. Airfare is not included.

Single Occupancy: $1,560 Double Occupancy: $1,360

Application/Review Process: Applications and required documentation will be sent to the NJLCA Advisory Committee for review. Once eligibility is determined, the candidate will be notified and sent acceptance materials. The geographical location and rated jail capacity will be taken into consideration to form a well-rounded class. Applications will be accepted by fax, mail, online, or PDF file.

Deadlines: Applications for the tenth class will be accepted through April 27, 2012.

Tentative Schedule: Candidates should plan to arrive at the campus no later than 2:00pm on Sunday, June 10, 2012, for introductions, networking, and dinner. Transportation will be provided for those arriving before 2:00pm. Candidates are required to attend the Sunday night activities. The Academy will end at approximately 2:00pm on Friday, June 15, 2012. Airport transportation will be provided on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Class Size: Attendance at each session of the NJLCA is limited to 36 participants. The NJLCA recommends no more than two participants per agency, per class. Those applicants not selected for the tenth class must reapply for the next desired session.

Questions: Inquiries should be directed to Sharese Hurst at 936-294-1687, via e-mail at sharese@shsu.edu, or visit www.nationaljailacademy.org.

A joint initiative of the:

American Jail Association

Correctional Management Institute of Texas, Sam Houston State University

National Association of Counties

Non-Discrimination Policy: AJA, CMIT, and NACO, through the administration of the NJLCA program, conform in all respects to Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures, or practices.